Collect

God of all mercy
Your Son proclaimed good news to the poor; release to the captives and freedom to the oppressed: anoint us with your Holy Spirit and set all your people free to praise you in Christ our Lord. Amen

Scripture : Acts of the Apostles 9: 1-5 The Conversion of Saul

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.'

Reflection

Saul – who became Paul; - our St Paul and great Apostle - begins just as the hymn verse above says. But Saul's heart was passionate for the Lord and his intention was to keep the Law of Moses pure and true: these new disciples of the Way seemed to threaten that. But on Saul a new light shined. It was his Epiphany as he realised the Lord he loved, was the very one he was also persecuting! It took a massive event like this in Saul's life for him to realise this and we know that he spent the rest of his life devoted to the Lord and building up the people of the Way – who became known as Christians. Saul knew that if the light of truth had shined on him in his darkness, with his threats of violence and death, it is shining for everyone: this light shined on Saul out of love for him and Saul responded. This light shines on everyone, and standing before it could feel as dramatic as it did for Saul: it's because God wants everyone to be a part of his Kingdom of justice, freedom, compassion and love. So, no wonder Jesus commands that we are to pray for our enemies.
